

CLASSICAL ARTS ENTERTAINMENT PRESENTS

SNOW WHITE

AND THE SEVEN DWARFS

While we are delighted to celebrate another exciting chapter for Classical Arts Entertainment, we are proud to announce our upcoming National Tour for the 2026–2027 season, bringing world-class ballet to audiences across the United States and Canada. We are deeply grateful to our audiences for their continued support and love throughout the years. Because of you, we can expand our reach and bring the beauty of classical ballet to new cities and communities each season.

Looking ahead, we are also excited to share that a new production of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs is currently in development and planned for the 2027–2028 touring season. This vibrant and family-friendly ballet will feature new sets, costumes, and a fresh artistic vision, continuing our commitment to creating unforgettable theatrical experiences.

Our mission remains the same: to preserve the magic and majesty of the classical repertoire while showcasing the extraordinary talent of our international company of dancers. Bringing together artists from across Europe and beyond, we are proud to present performances that reflect both tradition and innovation.

Even during challenging times around the world, we continue to stand by our belief that the show must go on. Through passion, dedication, and artistry, our performers bring each production to life on stage, creating powerful and inspiring moments for audiences everywhere.

We look forward to welcoming you to the theater and sharing these unforgettable experiences with you and your loved ones.

Respectfully,

Classical Arts Entertainment, Inc

About us

Classical Arts Entertainment has significantly impacted ballet enthusiasts across the United States and Canada with its decade of experience and rich history of over 20,000 shows.

The company's dedication to excellence is commendable, as evidenced by its meticulous approach to performance.

CAEI creates visually stunning productions that enchant and captivate audiences by combining timeless scores, impeccable dancing, hand-painted sets, and exquisite hand-crafted costumes. The choice of timeless scores ensures that the music accompanying the ballets resonates with audiences, evoking emotions and enhancing the overall experience.

Impeccable dancing is a crucial aspect of CAEI's performances. The company's dancers are undoubtedly skilled and trained to execute classical ballet's intricate and demanding choreography. Their talent and dedication bring the movements to life, conveying the grace, precision, and beauty that are trademarks of the art form.

In addition to the dancing, the hand-painted sets contribute to the overall visual splendor of CAEI's productions. These carefully crafted backdrops create immersive environments that transport the audience to different worlds, enhancing the storytelling and adding depth to the performances.

The exquisite hand-crafted costumes further elevate the productions. These meticulously designed and tailored garments enhance the visual appeal and contribute to the dancers' characterization. The costumes are vital in conveying the narrative and improving the aesthetic experience.

Through its attention to detail and commitment to excellence, CAEI brings the magic of classical ballet to life on stage. Its visually stunning productions, combined with the artistry and skill of its dancers, create an enchanting experience for audiences.

Since 2019 until present time, United European Ballet Company has been working on engaging the studios all over the country with the We Dance Program.

The Program has grown into a 30+ Partner Studios that perform throughout the East Coast Tour every year. Classical Arts Entertainment casts student dancers ages 5-18 in ancillary roles performing alongside the professional ballet dancers. A wide variety of parts for young dancers is offered during the Grand National Tour 2026/2027, in such repertoire, as:

CAE's We Love to Dance Program Director and Producer, Michael Art, plays a central role in supporting and developing young dancers who share the stage with professional artists in productions including The Nutcracker, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty, and Swan Lake.

Under his direction and creative leadership, We Love to Dance partner studios audition and rehearse thousands of local ballet students in tour cities each season. During the 2025 to 2026 Winter and Spring tours across the United States, more than 5000 students are expected to participate, gaining meaningful stage experience and professional-level preparation.

The We Love to Dance program is designed to prepare young performers for confident, high-quality appearances alongside an international company of professional ballet artists, offering practical production experience, artistic growth, and memorable opportunities on major theater stages.
